JUNE

cherries

The season starts with the classic Bing, deep red and super sweet. Be on the look out when Bing gives way to the Rainer, golden with a wash of red. These are considered the premium cherry with their distinctive sweet taste and larger size.

garden roses

Across from the Old Santa Barbara Mission, The A.C. Postel Rose Garden boasts not only gorgeous views, but the sweet scent of 1,600 rose bushes blooming in a rainbow of hues.

cherry tomatoes

The warm climate and sandy soil of Florida make for nice long growing seasons. These little gems usher in the much-anticipated tomato season. Look for 'Sweet 100' and 'Sun Sugar' varieties.
